

He That Triumphed Gloriously

by A.B. Simpson

God calls us to victory and promises to give us strength for the battle and watch over us with a fond enthusiasm.

Scripture: Joshua 1:5, Psalm 34:19, Isaiah 41:10, Romans 8:37, 1 Corinthians 15:57, 2 Corinthians 2:14, Ephesians 6:10, Philippians 4:13, Hebrews 13:5, 1 John 5:4

Topics: "Victory in Christ", "God's Promises"

Description

A.B. Simpson emphasizes that God calls us to victory and encourages believers not to surrender to their struggles. He challenges the audience to confront their conflicts and assures them that God provides strength for every battle. Simpson reminds us that God is aware of our trials and rejoices in our victories, urging us to embrace the promise of being 'more than conquerors.' He reassures us of God's unwavering presence and support, as illustrated in His promises to Joshua and through Isaiah.

Transcript

God calls us to victory. Have you given up the conflict, have you surrendered? Have you said, "This thing is too much?" Have you said, "I can give up anything else but this?" If you have, you are not in the land of promise. God intends that you accept every difficult thing that comes into your life. He has started with you, knowing every difficulty, and if you dare to let Him, He will carry you through not only to be a conqueror but "more than conquerors." Are you looking for all the victory God has for you?

God gives His children strength for the battle and watches over them with a fond enthusiasm.

He longs to fold you close and say to you, "I have seen thy conflict, I have watched thy trials, I have rejoiced in thy victory; thou hast honored Me." Remember what he told Joshua at the beginning, There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee (Joshua 1:5). And again, His word to us is, Fear . . . not, for I am with thee (Isaiah 41:10).
