

Power of Our Prayer

by Andrew Murray

Christ teaches us to pray by example, instruction, and by being our Life and Intercessor, empowering us to trust Him for a victorious prayer life.

Scripture: John 15:5, Romans 8:34, Philippians 4:6, Hebrews 7:25

Topics: "Abiding in Christ", "Power Of Prayer"

Description

Andrew Murray emphasizes the transformative power of prayer, teaching that Christ not only instructs us on how to pray but embodies the essence of prayer as our ever-living Intercessor. By abiding in Him, our fears about praying correctly dissipate, allowing us to trust joyfully in His guidance. This relationship with Christ empowers our prayer life, making it a source of strength and confidence. Murray encourages believers to recognize Jesus as the life and power behind their prayers, fostering a deeper connection with God.

Transcript

"Christ teaches us to pray not only by example, by instruction, by command, by promises, but by showing us Himself, the ever-living Intercessor, as our Life. It is when we believe this, and go and abide in Him for our prayer-life too, that our fears of not being able to pray aright will vanish, and we shall joyfully and triumphantly trust our Lord to teach us to pray, to be Himself the life and the power of our prayer."
