

We Live in a World of Changes!

by Anne Dutton

God's love remains constant in a world of changes, and we can trust in His strength to guide us to eternal bliss.

Scripture: Psalm 23:6, Psalm 33:11, Malachi 3:6, Hebrews 13:8, Jude 1:24

Topics: "Gods Love", "Eternal Security"

Description

Anne Dutton preaches about the unchanging love of God amidst the ever-changing world we live in, emphasizing that while everything around us may vary, God's love remains constant and unwavering. She encourages believers to find comfort in the eternal nature of God's love, which is as unchangeable as His very essence. Dutton reminds the audience that despite the trials and challenges of this life, our ultimate inheritance awaits in the unchanging bliss of eternity, where we will experience unfading joy and the immediate presence of God and the Lamb.

Dear Sir,

We live in a world of changes! The dispensations of God toward us alter--the manifestations of His love vary--the kindness of friends ebbs and flows--and our love to God and to each other varies like the changing light. But this, oh this, is our unspeakable privilege--and the spring of our bliss ineffable and eternal--the love of God to us changes not! The love of God's heart towards us is as unchangeable as His great Being, whose name is I AM--and is as invariable as that glorious Person through whom it flows, who is yesterday, today, and forever the same. The designs of Jehovah's kindness, the thoughts of His heart concerning us, stand fast unto all generations; and by all our earthly-changes He ushers in upon us some new fruit of His eternal unchanging love--to refresh our pilgrim-souls in this desert land, and to prepare us for our promised rest in the unchanging bliss of blessed eternity.

Darkness and distance attend the sons of God in the present state, but our approaching inheritance lies in light, in the immediate presence of God and of the Lamb--where unfading joys will be new and full unto endless days! O blessed state, when we shall be as happy, as holy--as we desire to be! A few more trials--and we shall be as gold that is seven times refined! A little more faith--and patience, and our race will be run and the crown won! And, glory to our three-one God! all needful grace to enable us to hold out unto endless glory is, and shall be given us. Ah, were our graces left to their own strength, and to our management, they would soon fly in pieces and be no more. But blessed is the man whose strength is in the Lord, and whose new-created soul is under Jehovah's care, who works in saints both to will and to do of His own good pleasure, and will perfect that which concerns them, and not forsake the work of His own hands.

I commit you to Him on whom you have believed, who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory, with exceeding joy!
