WE give a summary of the teaching of the New Testament concerning the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit and the Lord Jesus Christ. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit; anointed by the Spirit; the Spirit was not given to Him by measure, but was upon Him in His divine fulness; He was led by the Spirit; His ministry was in the power of the Spirit; His works were done by the Spirit of God; He promised the Spirit to His disciples; He offered Himself by the eternal Spirit; He was raised by the Spirit; He gave commandment by the Spirit; He sent forth the Spirit.

John the Baptist and the Spirit. John the Baptist was filled with the Spirit from his mother's womb; being the greatest of the Old Testament prophets he witnessed concerning the kingdom, the first and second advent of Christ. The national promise to Israel as to the gift of the Spirit and the new birth of the nation is included in his message. The promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the people Israel is still unfulfilled. It will be fulfilled in the day of the second coming of Christ.
