

The Greatest Malady In The Church Today

by Art Katz

This sermon addresses the lack of the fear of God in the church today, emphasizing the importance of recognizing God as a living, all-seeing, and all-knowing God. It highlights the danger of disregarding God's authority and assuming that our actions go unnoticed, leading to moral decline and spiritual decay, ultimately resulting in destructive behaviors like homosexuality and alcoholism.

Scripture: Proverbs 1:7, Proverbs 9:10, Psalm 111:10, Ecclesiastes 12:13, Proverbs 8:13, Proverbs 16:6, Psalm 34:11, Proverbs 14:27, Proverbs 19:23, Proverbs 22:4

Topics: "Fear of God", "Moral Accountability"

Transcript

The greatest malady of the church today is the lack of the fear of God as God. There is no awe, no sense of fear, no deep respect that he's a living God and a seeing and a knowing God and we can't get away with our little gitchoo and cutting corners as if he does not observe it. The remarkable thing is he lets it go on and he's silent and we assume that either he has condoned it or he's not seen it until the day comes that we find ourselves not only into homosexuality but also into alcoholism.

It catches up with us.
