Description

Ursula Hellrigl preaches about the deep longing for God's presence and truth, expressing a heartfelt cry to remain steadfast in joy and not be swayed by anxiety or fear. The sermon emphasizes the need for God's constant watchful care over our hearts and mouths, as we wait on Him with great longing for the freedom He brings. It reflects a desire to be kept in God's truth until the end, despite being in chains, symbolizing a yearning for spiritual liberation and unwavering faith.

Transcript

Eternal Father in heaven, I call to you from my innermost being. Do not let me turn away from you, but keep me in your truth until the end. Oh God, keep my heart and my mouth. Watch over me every hour. Do not let me turn away from you because of anxiety, fear or distress. Keep me steadfast in your joy. . . . I lie here in chains, waiting on you God, with a very great longing (mit sehr großem Verlangen) for the time when you will set me free.

-- Ursula Hellrigl, Ausbund, 36
