

A Moral Pronouncement

by A.W. Tozer

God is speaking to humanity through Jesus Christ, calling us to hear and obey His moral pronouncement.

Scripture: Matthew 17:5, Hebrews 1:1

Topics: "Authority of Scripture", "Moral Responsibility"

Description

A.W. Tozer emphasizes that God's message to humanity today is centered on the authority of Jesus Christ, His beloved Son, urging people to listen to Him. He points out that the rejection of this message stems from a reluctance to submit to the moral authority of God's Word, which serves as the ultimate standard for morality and Christian ethics. Tozer highlights that throughout history, God has communicated through inspired individuals, yet many choose to ignore this divine guidance. He stresses the importance of understanding Scripture through the same Spirit that inspired it, ensuring a unified comprehension of God's message.

Transcript

What is God saying to His human creation in our day and time? In brief, He is saying, "Jesus Christ is My beloved Son. Hear Him!" Why is there rejection? Why do men and women fail to listen? Because God's message in Jesus is a moral pronouncement. Men and women do not wish to be under the authority of the moral Word of God! For centuries, God spoke in many ways. He inspired holy men to write portions of the message in a book.

People do not like it so they try their best to avoid it because God has made it the final test of all morality, the final test of all Christian ethics. God, being one in His nature, is always able to say the same thing to everyone who hears Him.

Christian believers must know that any understanding of the Word of God must come from the same Spirit who provided the inspiration!
