

Christ Came to Save

by A.W. Tozer

A.W. Tozer emphasizes the importance of recognizing God's intention to save humanity through Christ and the need for believers to respond actively to this message.

Scripture: John 8:31

Topics: "False Teachings", "Spiritual Freedom"

Description

The preacher, Greek Word Studies, delves into the concept of 'sulagogeo,' which means to lead away as booty or captives, emphasizing how false teachings can victimize and brainwash believers, leading them away from the truth and into bondage. Paul warns against being kidnapped by deceptive teachings that plunder the treasures of wisdom and knowledge found in Christ, urging believers to let the word of Christ dwell richly in them to guard against spiritual enslavement. The battle against false doctrines is a struggle for Truth, focusing on the resurrected Christ and His power in our lives to resist being carried away from the freedom we have in Him.

Transcript

Millions who have rejected the Christian gospel have generally been too busy and too involved to ask themselves a simple question: "What really is God's intention toward me?" They could have found the plain and simple answer given by the Apostle John: "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world: but that the world through him might be saved." This is a gravely significant message from the heart of God Himself! Yet, even in the full light it provides, people are indifferent. Upon our eyes there seems to have fallen a strange dimness; within our ears, a strange dullness.

It is a wonder, and a terrible responsibility, that we should have this message in our possession and be so little stirred about it!

I confess that it is very hard for me to accept the fact that it is now very rare for anyone to come into the house of God, silently confessing: "Dear Lord, I am ready and willing to hear what you will speak to me today!"
