Description

A.W. Tozer emphasizes the importance of having confidence in God, encouraging believers to approach His throne of grace boldly, especially in times of need. He warns against seeking miraculous signs for personal gain and instead highlights the significance of honest communication with God during difficult times. Tozer reassures that through the merit of Jesus Christ, believers can claim God's promises and trust in His unwavering support. He concludes with a prayer of gratitude for God's faithfulness and the powerful promise given to those who trust in Him.

Transcript

Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. --Hebrews 4:16

You can have this confidence in God, and you can have this respect for His will. Do not expect God to perform miracles for you so you can write books about them. Do not ever be caught asking God to send you toys like that to play around with.

But if you are in trouble and concerned about your situation and willing to be honest with God, you can have confidence in Him. You can go to Him in the merit of His Son, claiming His promises, and He will not let you down. God will help you, and you will find the way of deliverance.

God will move heaven and earth for you if you will trust Him. Faith Beyond Reason, p. 49

"Thank You, Father, for the majesty of this truth. It certainly is only in the merit of Your Son, but in that merit You've given us a powerful promise. Thank You that You never let us down. Amen."
