

Is the Church Weary?

by A.W. Tozer

The church is weary and discouraged, but Jesus Christ remains the same, offering spiritual victory through His person, power, and grace.

Scripture: Matthew 11:28, Hebrews 13:8

Topics: "Spiritual Weariness", "Trust in Christ"

Description

A.W. Tozer addresses the weariness of the church, noting that many congregations are experiencing moral boredom and discouragement, feeling disconnected from the vibrant faith of their forebears. He critiques prophetic teachers who have projected hope into a distant future, leaving believers in a state of spiritual poverty. Tozer emphasizes that despite these challenges, the path to spiritual victory is clear through the Word of God. He reassures that Jesus Christ remains our Savior and High Priest, unchanged and actively ministering to us today. The message calls for a renewed trust in Christ's enduring power and grace.

Transcript

As Christian believers, we stand together in the evangelical faith-the historical faith of our fathers. Yet, we must confess that many congregations seem bogged down with moral boredom and life-weariness. The church is tired, discouraged and unastonished-Christ seems to belong to yesterday. The prophetic teachers have projected everything into the dim future where it is beyond our reach-unavailable! They have dispensationalized us into a state of spiritual poverty-and they have left us there! But regardless of such teachers, the course of spiritual victory is clear; let us trust what the Word of God continues to say to us! The Scriptures are open and plain. Jesus Christ is our Savior and Lord.

He is our great High Priest, alive and ministering for us today.

His person, His power and His grace are the same; without change, yesterday, today and forever!
