Description

A.W. Tozer emphasizes that all life originates from God, who is not a distant creator but the very essence of life itself. He explains that the miracle of life is a continuous flow from God, who is the fountainhead of existence, and that eternal life is not merely a gift but God's very being. Tozer asserts that the regeneration of believers is a continuation of God's creative work, demonstrating that redemption is part of His ongoing purpose rather than a separate act. This understanding invites believers to recognize their connection to God as the source of all life and vitality.

Transcript

Without doubt, we have suffered the loss of many spiritual treasures because we have let slip the simple truth that the miracle of the perpetuation of life is in God! Be assured that God did not create life and toss it from Him like some petulant artist disappointed with his work. All life is in Him and out of Him, flowing from Him and returning to Him again, a moving indivisible sea of which He is the fountainhead. That eternal life which was with the Father is now the possession of believing men and women, and that life is not God's gift only-but His very Self!

The regeneration of a believing soul is but a recapitulation of all His work done from the moment of creation.

So, redemption is not a strange work which God for a moment turned aside to do: rather it is His same work performed in a new field, the field of human catastrophe!
