

Riches of Grace

by A.W. Tozer

God's rich grace benefits the entire universe, extending far beyond salvation to all creation.

Scripture: John 1:14, Ephesians 2:8, Revelation 5:12

Topics: "Grace", "Praise for Christ"

Description

A.W. Tozer emphasizes that God's actions in the universe are intrinsically linked to Jesus Christ, who embodies the fullness of grace and truth. He urges Christians to recognize the vastness of God's grace, which extends to all creation, from the stars to humanity. Tozer highlights the universal chorus of praise for Jesus, the Lamb who was slain, affirming that all beings acknowledge His worthiness. The sermon calls believers to appreciate the richness of God's grace that permeates every aspect of existence. Ultimately, Tozer reminds us that the grace of God is a profound gift that should inspire awe and gratitude.

Transcript

Would it startle you if I dared to say that the living God has never done anything in His universe apart from Jesus Christ? Christians seem to be woefully unaware of the full meaning and measure of the grace of God. Why should we question God's provision when the Holy Spirit tells us through the Apostle John that the Word who became flesh is "full of grace and truth"? Brethren, the stars in their courses, the frogs that croak beside the lake, the angels in heaven above and men and women on earth below—all came out of the channel we call the eternal Word!

In the book of Revelation, John bears record of the whole universe joining to give praise to the Lamb that was slain.

Under the earth and on the earth, and above the earth John heard creatures praising Jesus Christ, all joining in a great chorus: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory and blessing!" Yes, surely the entire universe is beneficiary of God's rich grace in Jesus Christ!
