Description

This sermon reflects on the special time of Christmas in Canaan, West Germany, as a time of praise and thanksgiving for God's love in sending His Son to deliver us from sin and death. It emphasizes that trusting in Jesus brings salvation and that Jesus loves each person like a friend, extending a hand of friendship and help to all who believe.

Transcript

In the little land of Canaan in West Germany, Christmas is always a special time of praise and thanksgiving for the wonderful love of God. He sent his son to this earth to deliver us from the power of sin and death, and whoever trusts in him will experience his saving power. Jesus loves you like a friend.

He holds out his hand to you. Give him yours. The child in the manger is calling, I came to love you and help you.

Oh, won't you believe me? May you draw very near to Jesus today. Goodbye and God bless you.
