

To You Is Born a Savior

by Basilea Schlink

The sermon emphasizes the significance of Jesus' birth as the Savior of the world, bringing joy and happiness to those who seek Him.

Duration: 1:01

Scripture: Matthew 2:10

Topics: "Christmas Story", "Worship Jesus"

Description

This sermon reflects on the first Christmas Eve when the shepherds received the good news of the Savior's birth, leading them to find Jesus in a humble setting. It emphasizes that Jesus is alive today and encourages seeking Him to fulfill the deepest desires of the heart. Just like the shepherds found joy in worshipping Jesus, believers are invited to come to Him for happiness and fulfillment, making each day a day of rejoicing.

Transcript

On that first Christmas Eve, the shepherds heard the glad tidings, to you is born this day a Savior. And the angelic choirs were praising God and saying, glory to God in the highest. Filled with awe and wonder, the shepherds set out for Bethlehem.

And there, in a cattle stall, they found the Savior of the world. Jesus is alive today. And if we seek Him, we too shall find Him.

Come to Jesus. He will fulfill the deepest desires of your heart. And as you worship Him, like the shepherds long ago, you will be filled with happiness.

So may this day be a day of rejoicing for you. Goodbye, and God bless you.
