

In Nothing Be Anxious - Exo. 14:14

by Bernard Fell

We can overcome worry by trusting in God's power and effectual fervent prayer, and by girding up our minds with the promises of God.

Scripture: Exodus 14:14, 2 Corinthians 10:5, Philippians 4:7, James 5:16, 1 Peter 5:7

Topics: "Overcoming Worry", "Faith And Trust"

Description

Bernard Fell preaches about the battle against worry, describing it as a ruthless foe that seeks to conquer and rob individuals of peace, joy, and sleep. He emphasizes the power of prayer, love, peace, and grace in overcoming worry and finding security in God's protection. By trusting in the heavenly Captain and allowing Him to take control, worry can be overwhelmed and defeated, leading to a life free from its torment.

Transcript

The Lord shall fight for you,
and ye shall hold your peace.

Exodus 14:14

This ancient foe called Worry,
A ruthless buccaneer,
Whose weapons are destructive.
Depression, doubt, and fear,
Still seeks to conquer daily,
Controls a motley crew,
In subtle forms of mischief,
His deadly work to do.
He boards the storm-tossed vessel,

This pirate in the strife,
And robs the weary traveller
Who sails the sea of life.
He takes the heart's rich treasures,
And plunders gems of sleep:
He takes, but leaves behind him,
A tortured mind to keep!
O pow'r that ever triumphs-
Effectual fervent prayer!
O Love that lifts all burdens
With tender hands of care!
O peace, a mighty fortress,
Encircling day by day!
O grace that keeps securely
And drives the foe away!
Then trust the heavenly Captain,
He is a Man of War,
To apprehend the tyrant,
And silence evermore.
He comes along your vessel,
O bid Him take the helm!
Then worry with its flurry.
His pow'r shall overwhelm.
Gird up, with cords of promise,
The loins of the mind;
Recount the lavish blessings
Along life's path you find;

In holy concentration,
With grateful heart aglow,
This ancient foe called Worry,
No longer shall you know!
