

(Clip) To Stand Before The Son of Man

by Bob Jennings

This sermon emphasizes the enduring nature of God's words compared to the passing nature of heaven and earth. It warns against being weighed down by worldly distractions like dissipation, drunkenness, worries, cares, and anxieties, which can prevent readiness for the coming day. The message urges believers to stay alert, strengthen their faith, and be prepared to face the events that will unfold, standing before the Son of Man.

Scripture: Matthew 24:35, Luke 21:34, Luke 21:35, Luke 21:36, Revelation 3:3

Topics: "Endurance of God's Word", "Readiness for Christ's Return"

Transcript

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. Be on guard, so that your heart will not be weighted down with dissipation and drunkenness. The worries, the worries, the worries, the cares, the anxieties of life, that day will not come on you suddenly like a trap.

It will come upon all those who fell on the face of all the earth. But keep on the alert at all times. You may have strength to escape these things, things, things, things, that are about to take place and to stand, to stand before the Son of Man.
