

Unrelenting Prayer Before The Coming of Jesus (Clip)

by Bob Sorge

This sermon emphasizes Jesus' call for persistent prayer and unwavering faith, especially in the context of living at the end of the age. The parable in Luke 18 is seen as a direct reference to the end times, with Jesus questioning whether true faith will be found on earth upon His return. It highlights the importance of maintaining faith and prayerfulness amidst a scoffing spirit that questions the promise of Christ's coming.

Transcript

Jesus wants you to pray and never give up, especially living at the end of the age as we do. In verse 8, the Lord said about this parable, he says, Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he really find faith on the earth? Jesus is indicating that the Luke 18 parable in front of us is actually pointing to the end of the age and is more relevant to us today who live at the end of the age than it has ever been before. There is a scoffing spirit that Peter said would come in the end times, and it asks this question, where is the promise of his coming?
