Transcript

This is the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the one capital O, like the son of man. This is the highest way there.

And there's only one. I was sitting on it earlier. There is only one.

Well, no, I know that, Brian. No, not really, do we? There is only one. There's been many men that walk the globe.

There's only one flawless lamb of God. And he's he's matchless in beauty. There there is only one.

There never has been another. Not even the father or the Holy Spirit who are complete, perfect and 100 percent God, all of them. But that's why no one's worthy to open the scroll, because he's a son of man, 100 percent divinity intermingled with humanity.

But but the one capital of one, there's only one. There's only one true mind. There is no other.

There never has been, never will be. And and here he is. Allowing us to see him and.

And he's way too perfect, fully clothed. Literally, the only thing we're allowed to see, because that's how it should be, is his hands and what's in him, his feet, his head and hair and. And eyes, which we'll get into here in a second, but look, clothes with a garment down to I love this.

Fully clothed us, Lord, in this hour. This is not the hour to have your ankles showing. And you guys know what I mean.

I'm talking spiritually speaking. And of course, in the natural, we love modesty and all that. We get it.

But. We've got to be fully clothed. And this is what he corrects, the last church age, in a sense, you know, essentially live to see.

I said, look, you're naked. You think you've got it going on, but you're blind, poor and naked. Buy from me gold or fine and fire white garments that you may be clothed.

So the shame of your nakedness is not exposed. And he's the rivers of this correction that's later in Revelation three are coming from a man who's fully clothed. I sort of love about the Lord, too.

He's never he's never going to tell you anything that he doesn't live and is. He is the thing at the highest level on every level. He's it.

There's only one.
