

God is Coming To Rest In The Lowly Ones

by Brian Guerin

This sermon emphasizes the importance of focusing on the heart and true devotion to God, rather than seeking earthly accolades and attention. It highlights the humility and love shown by those who genuinely care for and glorify God, contrasting it with the allure of worldly recognition. The message warns against being distracted by the shiny and glamorous things of this world, as true rest and fulfillment are found in humble service and devotion to God.

Scripture: Matthew 6:19, 1 Samuel 16:7, Philippians 2:3, Luke 9:23, James 4:10

Topics: "True Devotion", "Humility in Service"

Transcript

I'm just saying the heart, I'm addressing the heart, looking to grow followers and get YouTube plaques and all this stuff. And again, I'm not against, you do your thing. I'm just saying all this stuff's gonna melt in his eyes one day.

And he's not, he's coming through hidden manger, lowly ones that it's not false either. They're just, they just love him. They wanna glorify him.

They're not trying to search for earthly accolades and use clickbait imagery to pull more attention. They don't care about your attention. They're just happy enough being out in the dirt and caring for him, wrapping him, ministering to him and laying him in humility and death.

That's where he's gonna rest. This is it. And this is why so many people are gonna miss it.

Because we as humans fall for all the shiny and glittery and glamorous and notable.
