

Making Ourselves of No Reputation

by Brian Guerin

---

This sermon emphasizes the biblical way of seeking God's glory by emptying oneself, being broken and contrite in heart, and trembling at His word. It highlights Jesus' example of humility, where He made Himself of no reputation, took on the form of a humble man, and ultimately became a bond servant, leading to God exalting Him for His humility and obedience.

Scripture: Isaiah 66:2, Philippians 2:7, James 4:10, 1 Peter 5:6

Topics: "Humility", "Seeking God's Glory"

Transcript

Nowadays, everybody's trying to build their own reputation. They're trying to make one. This is not the biblical way.

Again, I know this isn't popular, but I just want God glorified. I want to run with the people that are so quick to empty themselves. They're over it all.

And the way I'm telling the true biblical way that God gets glory is Isaiah 66 too. He looks upon those who are broken and contrite in heart and spirit and tremble at his word. And so it's so beautiful.

Jesus walks this out masterfully, God of all of the universe. And the Bible says he literally made himself. God didn't do it for him.

He decided this thing. He made himself of no reputation, came in the form of lowly, non-assuming man, and then walked humbly to the point of death and took on the form of a bond servant. Then because of this, God exalted him highly so God would get glory.
