

The Five Foolish Virgins

by Brian Kim

This sermon emphasizes the importance of being prepared and having the necessary resources for the journey ahead, drawing parallels to the parable of the foolish virgins who had lamps but no oil. It highlights the need for spiritual readiness and not just outward appearances of readiness. The message encourages believers to ensure they have the oil of faith, prayer, and relationship with God to sustain them in times of darkness and waiting.

Scripture: Matthew 25:1, Psalm 119:105, James 2:14, 1 Thessalonians 5:6

Topics: "Spiritual Readiness", "Faith and Preparation"

Transcript

Those who are foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them. I want you to catch this, like they had their lamps all shiny. It was more like a torch, but you know, we just like to think of like Aladdin's lamp, right? Like it was like Middle East, so it looks like Aladdin.

Anyways, like we like to imagine it's more like a torch, but they took their shiny little lamps and they didn't take any oil with them. In other words, they weren't prepared. It's like
