

Your Intimacy with Jesus Get Oil

by Brian Kim

This sermon emphasizes the personal choice individuals have in seeking intimacy with God and receiving the Holy Spirit. It highlights the importance of prioritizing one's relationship with Jesus over external influences or platforms, focusing on developing a secret history with God rather than seeking recognition. The message warns against the self-centeredness prevalent in society, referencing 2 Timothy chapter three's prophecy about people becoming lovers of themselves in the last days.

Scripture: Matthew 6:6, Acts 2:38, John 15:4, 1 Samuel 16:7, Philippians 2:3, 2 Timothy 3:1, James 4:8

Topics: "Intimacy with God", "Prioritizing Relationship over Recognition"

No one can choose to get this oil of intimacy or this presence of the Holy Spirit living inside of us for us. No one can choose to have a relationship with Jesus for us or for you. We either choose to get oil or we don't.

Let me just define oil for you. It's your secret history in God. Can I tell you this? Like some of you are thinking, it's like I'm gonna have an intimate relationship with Jesus because you're consumed with your influence or your platform and you think that's the way.

No, it's only your secret history in God, not when you wanna just present yourself in some sort of way. In the last days, 2 Timothy chapter three, we don't have to turn there, but it tells us that in the last days, people are gonna be lovers of themselves. Hello, Instagram.
