

Prayer Is Having A Relationship With God

by Carter Conlon

This sermon emphasizes the importance of open communication with God, highlighting how sin disrupted the intimate relationship between God and humanity but was restored through Jesus Christ. It encourages a simple, genuine conversation with God, emphasizing that He longs for companionship and connection with His people.

Scripture: Genesis 3:8, John 3:16, Psalm 145:18, Philippians 4:6

Topics: "Open Communication with God", "Restoration through Jesus Christ"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of open communication with God, highlighting how sin disrupted the intimate relationship between God and humanity but was restored through Jesus Christ. It encourages a simple, genuine conversation with God, emphasizing that He longs for companionship and connection with His people.

Transcript

Exhausted all of these avenues the Lord just when you know when you just finally stop running God says can we talk now? He said Carter I had a friend called Adam in the gar and I loved my friend and I would come down to my friend and I would converse with my friend and It's what I what's what I've longed for as God I long for this companionship with this man and because sin entered into his heart. I lost my friend So I came to this world As a man Jesus Christ and I went to a cross Defeated the power that had defeated him So that I could talk again To Adam's descendants. He said Carter just talk to me There's amazing revelation.

It shouldn't be but it is it's an amazing revelation Just talk to me. You don't have to speak a hundred miles an hour You don't have to use King James English. The posture doesn't mind.

It doesn't matter You can talk to me when you're walking down the street

Video: <https://sermonindex2.b-cdn.net/t-u9CcT2ymY.mp4>

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/carter-conlon/prayer-is-having-a-relationship-with-god/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net