

Joyful Security

by C.H. Spurgeon

God's right hand of righteousness provides joyful security and upholds us, making us bold to go forward without fear of falling.

Scripture: Psalm 37:24, Psalm 46:1, Psalm 55:22, Isaiah 40:29, Isaiah 41:10, Romans 8:31, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Philippians 4:13, Hebrews 13:5, 1 Peter 5:7

Topics: "God's Protection", "Faith and Trust"

Description

C.H. Spurgeon emphasizes the theme of 'Joyful Security' by highlighting the assurance found in God's promise to uphold us with His right hand of righteousness, especially during times of fear and uncertainty. He reassures believers that while we may feel weak and vulnerable, God's power and skill are more than sufficient to support us through life's challenges. Spurgeon encourages us to lean on God's strength, reminding us that those upheld by Him cannot be overcome by any force. The sermon calls for a joyful response to God's unwavering faithfulness and the security we find in His righteousness.

Transcript

I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. (Isaiah 41:10)

Fear of falling is wholesome. To be venturesome is no sign of wisdom. Times come to us when we feel that we must go down unless we have a very special support. Here we have it. God's right hand is a grand thing to lean upon. Mind, it is not only His hand, though it keepeth heaven and earth in their places, but His right hand: His power united with skill, His power where it is most dexterous. Nay, this is not all; it is written, "I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." That hand which He uses to maintain His holiness and to execute His royal sentences -- this shall be stretched out to hold up His trusting ones. Fearful is our danger, but joyful is our security.

The man whom God upholds, devils cannot throw down.

Weak may be our feet, but almighty is God's right hand. Rough may be the road, but Omnipotence is our upholding. We may boldly go forward. We shall not fall. Let us lean continually where all things lean. God will not withdraw His strength, for His righteousness is there as well. He will be faithful to His promise, and faithful to His Son, and therefore faithful to us. How happy we ought to be! Are we not so?

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/ch-spurgeon/joyful-security/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net