

We Dwell in Him

by C.H. Spurgeon

The sermon emphasizes the privilege of dwelling in Christ, a house that is without price, furnished with all we need, and everlasting.

Scripture: Isaiah 55:1, John 14:2

Topics: "Eternal Security", "Dwelling in Christ"

Description

C.H. Spurgeon emphasizes the profound blessing of dwelling in Christ, presenting it as a house for the soul that is offered without cost, requiring only a commitment to love and serve Him. He invites those who feel unworthy or guilty to come to Jesus, assuring them that He will cleanse and prepare them for this eternal dwelling. The house is richly furnished with everything needed for spiritual sustenance and intimate communion with Christ, providing rest and a glimpse of heaven. Spurgeon highlights the privilege of believers who find their security and identity in this everlasting home, which remains imperishable even as the world fades away.

Transcript

Do you want a house for your soul? Do you ask, "What is the purchase?" It is something less than proud human nature will like to give. It is without money and without price. Ah! you would like to pay a respectable rent! You would love to do something to win Christ? Then you cannot have the house, for it is "without price." Will you take my Master's house on a lease for all eternity, with nothing to pay for it, nothing but the ground-rent of loving and serving Him for ever? Will you take Jesus and "dwell in Him?"

See, this house is furnished with all you want, it is filled with riches more than you will spend as long as you live. Here you can have intimate communion with Christ and feast on His love; here are tables well-stored with food for you to live on for ever; in it, when weary, you can find rest with Jesus; and from it you can look out and see heaven itself. Will you have the house? Ah! if you are houseless, you will say, "I should like to have the house; but may I have it?" Yes; there is the key--the key is, "Come to Jesus."

"But," you say, "I am too shabby for such a house." Never mind; there are garments inside. If you feel guilty and condemned, come; and though the house is too good for you, Christ will make you good enough for the house by-and-by. He will wash you and cleanse you, and you will yet be able to sing, "We dwell in Him." Believer: thrice happy art thou to have such a dwelling-place! Greatly privileged thou art, for thou hast a "strong habitation" in which thou art ever safe. And "dwelling in Him," thou hast not only a perfect and secure house, but an everlasting one. When this world shall have melted like a dream, our house shall live, and stand more imperishable than marble, more solid than granite, self-existent as God, for it is God Himself--"We dwell in Him."

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/ch-spurgeon/we-dwell-in-him/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net