Description

Charles E. Cowman preaches about finding hope and strength in God when we are at our wit's end, facing overwhelming challenges and feeling alone in our struggles. He emphasizes that it is at these moments of desperation that God's power is revealed, and Jesus comes to our aid with love and compassion. Cowman encourages believers to trust in the Burden-bearer, Jesus, who stands with us at Wit's End Corner, ready to provide the strength and resources we need to overcome. He reminds us that even in our darkest moments, God is able to lead us to a brighter pathway and open doors of opportunity.

Transcript

"At their wit's end, they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out" (Ps. 107:27, 28).

Are you standing at "Wit's End Corner,"

Christian, with troubled brow?

Are you thinking of what is before you,

And all you are bearing now?

Does all the world seem against you,

And you in the battle alone?

Remember--at "Wit's End Corner"

Is just where God's power is shown.

Are you standing at "Wit's End Corner,"

Blinded with wearying pain,

Feeling you cannot endure it,

You cannot bear the strain,
Bruised through the constant suffering,
Dizzy, and dazed, and numb?
Remember--at "Wit's End Corner"
Is where Jesus loves to come.
Are you standing at "Wit's End Corner"?
Your work before you spread,
All lying begun, unfinished,
And pressing on heart and head,
Longing for strength to do it,
Stretching out trembling hands?
Remember--at. "Wit's End Corner"
The Burden-bearer stands.
Are you standing at "Wit's End Corner"?
Then you're just in the very spot
To learn the wondrous resources
Of Him who faileth not:
No doubt to a brighter pathway
Your footsteps will soon be moved,
But only at "Wit's End Corner"
Is the "God who is able" proved.
