

Cast Down

by Charles E. Cowman

We can always hope in God and exercise faith in His power and love, even in difficult circumstances.

Scripture: Psalm 27:14, Psalm 34:4, Psalm 43:5, Philippians 4:6, Hebrews 11:1

Topics: "Faith And Hope", "Power Of Prayer"

Description

Charles E. Cowman, inspired by George Mueller, preaches on the importance of never losing hope in God, highlighting that there are only two reasons to be cast down: being unconverted or living in sin. He emphasizes the power of prayer, supplication, and thanksgiving in bringing all our needs and trials before God. Cowman encourages unwavering faith in God's power and love, reminding believers to patiently wait for His help, which always comes in His perfect time and way.

"Why art thou cast down, O my soul" (Ps. 43:5).

Is there ever any ground to be cast down? There are two reasons, but only two. If we are as yet unconverted, we have ground to be cast down; or if we have been converted and live in sin, then we are rightly cast down.

But except for these two things there is no ground to be cast down, for all else may be brought before God in prayer with supplication and thanksgiving. And regarding all our necessities, all our difficulties, all our trials, we may exercise faith in the power of God, and in the love of God.

"Hope thou in God." Oh, remember this: There is never a time when we may not hope in God. Whatever our necessities, however great our difficulties, and though to all appearance help is impossible, yet our business is to hope in God, and it will be found that it is not in vain. In the Lord's own time help will come.

Oh, the hundreds, yea, the thousands of times that I have found it thus within the past seventy years and four months!

When it seemed impossible that help could come, help did come; for God has His own resources. He is not confined. In ten thousand different ways, and at ten thousand different times God may help us.

Our business is to spread our cases before the Lord, in childlike simplicity to pour out all our heart before God, saying,

"I do not deserve that Thou shouldst hear me and answer my requests, but for the sake of my precious Lord Jesus; for His sake answer my prayer, and give me grace quietly to wait till it please Thee to answer my prayer. For I believe Thou wilt do it in Thine own time and way."

"For I shall yet praise him." More prayer, more exercise of faith, more patient waiting, and the result will be blessing, abundant blessing. Thus I have found it many hundreds of times, and therefore I continually say to myself, "Hope thou in God." --George Mueller
