

Claim Victory

by Charles E. Cowman

We are called to claim our rights and privileges as children of the King, and to demand the rights that belong to our heirship.

Scripture: Joshua 1:9, Psalm 44:4, Romans 8:37, 1 Corinthians 15:57, Ephesians 1:11

Topics: "Spiritual Warfare", "Victory In Christ"

Description

Charles E. Cowman preaches about claiming victory in the name of God, emphasizing that all foes to our growth in grace and enemies in our Christian work were conquered by Jesus. He encourages believers to be strong, courageous, and unafraid, as God promises to deliver their enemies before them. Cowman urges the congregation to claim victory whenever faced with challenges, reminding them that they share in the triumph won by Jesus. As children of the King, believers honor God by confidently asserting their rights and privileges as heirs of the Royal Family.

Transcript

"Thou art my king, O God: Command deliverance (victories, margin) for Jacob" (Ps. 44:4 RV).

Here is no foe to your growth in grace, no enemy in your Christian work, which was not included in your Savior's conquests.

You need not be afraid of them. When you touch them, they will flee before you. God has promised to deliver them up before you. Only be strong and very courageous! Fear not, nor be dismayed! The Lord is with you, O mighty men of valor--mighty because one with the Mightiest. Claim victory!

Whenever your enemies close in upon you, claim victory! Whenever heart and flesh fail, look up and claim VICTORY!

Be sure that you have a share in that triumph which Jesus won, not for Himself alone, but for us all; remember that you were in Him when He won it, and claim victory!

Reckon that it is yours, and gather spoil. Neither the Anakim nor fenced cities need daunt or abash you. You are one of the conquering legion. Claim your share in the Savior's victory.

--Joshua, by Meyer

We are children of the King. In which way do we most honor our Divine Sovereign, by failing to claim our rights and even doubting whether they belong to us, or by asserting our privilege as children of the Royal Family and demanding the rights which belong to our heirship?
