

Dealing With the Past

by Charles E. Cowman

God can deal with our past mistakes and impossibilities when we surrender and trust in Him.

Scripture: Jeremiah 32:27, Joel 2:25, Matthew 9:28, Luke 18:27, Hebrews 4:16

Topics: "Faith And Surrender", "Gods Restoration"

Description

Charles E. Cowman preaches about God's ability to deal with impossibilities, emphasizing that it is never too late for Him to work miraculously in our lives when we bring our impossible situations to Him in full faith. He highlights that Christianity is the only religion that can address man's past, as God can restore what has been lost when we surrender everything to Him. Cowman encourages full surrender, trust, and belief in God's power to forgive, heal, and restore, emphasizing that nothing is too hard for Jesus, and God delights in impossibilities.

Transcript

"Believe ye that I am able to do this?" (Matt. 9:28).

God deals with impossibilities. It is never too late for Him to do so, when the impossible is brought to Him, in full faith, by the one in whose life and circumstances the impossible must be accomplished if God is to be glorified. If in our own life there have been rebellion, unbelief, sin, and disaster, it is never too late for God to deal triumphantly with these tragic facts if brought to Him in full surrender and trust. It has often been said, and with truth, that Christianity is the only religion that can deal with man's past. God can "restore the years that the locust hath eaten" (Joel 2:25); and He will do this when we put the whole situation and ourselves unreservedly and believingly into His hands. Not because of what we are but because of what He is. God forgives and heals and restores. He is "the God of all grace." Let us praise Him and trust Him. --Sunday School Times

"Nothing is too hard for Jesus

No man can work like Him."

"We have a God who delights in impossibilities." Nothing too hard for Me. --Andrew Murray
