

He Worketh

by Charles E. Cowman

The sermon emphasizes the importance of committing our way to the Lord and trusting in His ability to work, even when we do not see immediate results.

Scripture: Psalm 37:5, Psalm 57:2, Proverbs 16:3, Isaiah 26:3, Philippians 4:6

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Gods Sovereignty"

Description

Charles E. Cowman preaches on the immediate action of God when we truly commit our burdens to Him, emphasizing the need to roll our sorrows, difficulties, needs, and anxieties onto the Lord. The message highlights the assurance that God is actively working on our behalf when we trust in Him, urging believers to have faith in His ability to bring about the desired outcomes. The sermon encourages surrendering our tasks and causes to God, acknowledging His faithfulness in accomplishing what we cannot manage on our own.

"He worketh" (Ps. 37:5).

The translation that we find in Young of "Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass," reads: "Roll upon Jehovah thy way; trust upon him: and he worketh."

It calls our attention to the immediate action of God when we truly commit, or roll out of our hands into His, the burden of whatever kind it may be; a way of sorrow, of difficulty, of physical need, or of anxiety for the conversion of some dear one.

"He worketh." When? Now. We are so in danger of postponing our expectation of His acceptance of the trust, and His undertaking to accomplish what we ask Him to do, instead of saying as we commit, "He worketh." "He worketh" even now; and praise Him that it is so.

The very expectancy enables the Holy Spirit to do the very thing we have rolled upon Him. It is out of our reach. We are not trying to do it any more. "He worketh!"

Let us take the comfort out of it and not put our hands on it again. Oh, what a relief it brings! He is really working on the difficulty.

But someone may say, "I see no results." Never mind. "He worketh," if you have rolled it over and are looking to Jesus to do it. Faith may be tested, but "He worketh"; the Word is sure! --V. H. F.

"I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me" (Ps. 57:2).

The beautiful old translation says, "He shall perform the cause which I have in hand." Does not that make it very real to us today? Just the very thing that "I have in hand"--my own particular bit of work today, this cause that I cannot manage, this thing that I undertook in miscalculation of my own powers--this is what I may ask Him to do "for me," and rest assured that He will perform it. "The wise and their works are in the hands of God." --Havergal

The Lord will go through with His covenant engagements. Whatever He takes in hand He will accomplish; hence past mercies are guarantees for the future and admirable reasons for continuing to cry unto Him. --C. H. Spurgeon
