

Members of His Body

by Charles E. Cowman

Divine healing is the life of Christ in us, and we can appropriate it by believing and receiving His presence and power.

Scripture: Job 33:24, Zephaniah 3:17, 2 Corinthians 4:16, Ephesians 5:30, Colossians 3:4

Topics: "Divine Healing", "Christ's Presence"

Description

Charles E. Cowman preaches on the profound truth of divine healing, emphasizing that it is essentially the life of Christ flowing through believers, uniting them with His body and empowering them with His attributes and powers. He highlights the reality of Christ's presence within us, transforming our entire being into a new creation, and the importance of appropriating God's might and power in our lives. Through personal testimony, he shares how this reality has sustained and rejuvenated him, enabling him to do more with less effort, and leading to a life that overflows with strength and vitality.

Transcript

"I have found an atonement" (Job 33:24, margin).

Divine healing is just divine life. It is the headship of Christ over the body. It is the life of Christ in the frame. It is the union of our members with the very body of Christ and the inflowing life of Christ in our living members. It is as real as His risen and glorified body. It is as reasonable as the fact that He was raised from the dead and is a living Man with a true body and a rational soul today at God's right hand.

That living Christ belongs to us in all His attributes and powers. We are members of His body, His flesh and His bones, and if we can only believe and receive it, we may live upon the very life of the Son of God. Lord, help me to know "the Lord for the body and the body for the Lord.'

--A. B. Simpson

"The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty." (Zeph. 3:17). This was the text that first flashed the truth of Divine healing into my mind and worn-out body nearly a quarter century ago. It is still the door, wide open more than ever, through which the living Christ passes moment by moment into my redeemed body, filling, energizing, vitalizing it with the presence and power of His own personality, turning my whole being into a "new heaven and new earth." "The Lord, thy God." Thy God. My God. Then all that is in God Almighty is mine and in me just as far as I am able and willing to appropriate Him and all that belongs to

Him. This God, "Mighty," ALL Mighty God, is our INSIDE God. He is, as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, in the midst of me, just as really as the sun is in the center of the heavens, or like the great dynamo in the center of the power-house of my three-fold being. He is in the midst, at the center of my physical being. He is in the midst of my brain. He is in the midst of my nerve centers.

For twenty-one years it has been not only a living reality to me, but a reality growing deeper and richer, until now at the age of seventy years, I am in every sense a younger, fresher man than I was at thirty. At this present time I am in the strength of God, doing full twice as much work, mental and physical, as I have ever done in the best days of the past, and this observe, with less than half the effort then necessary. My life, physical, mental and spiritual, is like an artesian well--always full, overflowing. To speak, teach, travel by night and day in all weather and through all the sudden and violent changes of our variable climate, is no more effort to me than it is for the mill-wheel to turn when the stream is full or for the pipe to let the water run through.

My body, soul and spirit thus redeemed,

Sanctified and healed I give, O Lord, to Thee,

A consecrated offering Thine ever more to be.

That all my powers with all their might

In Thy sole glory may unite.--Hallelujah!
