

Wait Quietly

by Charles E. Cowman

The sermon emphasizes the importance of patiently waiting on God's promises, as exemplified by Abraham's unwavering faith.

Scripture: Psalm 27:14, Romans 8:25, Hebrews 6:15, James 5:11, 2 Peter 3:9

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Patient Endurance"

Description

Charles E. Cowman preaches about the importance of patiently enduring trials and tribulations, using the example of Abraham who faced various challenges but remained steadfast in his faith and trust in God. Despite being tested by delays, temptations, human opposition, and personal struggles, Abraham did not waver in his belief in God's promises. His patient endurance led to the fulfillment of God's promise in his life, showcasing the faithfulness of God and the reward for those who wait on Him.

Transcript

"And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise" (Heb. 6:15).

Abraham was long tried, but he was richly rewarded. The Lord tried him by delaying to fulfill His promise. Satan tried him by temptation; men tried him by jealousy, distrust, and opposition; Sarah tried him by her peevishness. But he patiently endured. He did not question God's veracity, nor limit His power, nor doubt His faithfulness, nor grieve His love; but he bowed to Divine Sovereignty, submitted to Infinite Wisdom, and was silent under delays, waiting the Lord's time. And so, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

God's promises cannot fail of their accomplishment. Patient waiters cannot be disappointed. Believing expectation shall be realized.

Beloved, Abraham's conduct condemns a hasty spirit, reproves a murmuring one, commends a patient one, and encourages quiet submission to God's will and way. Remember, Abraham was tried; he patiently waited; he received the promise, and was satisfied. Imitate his example, and you will share the same blessing.--Selected
