Transcript

Christ the Lord is risen today, Sons of men and angels say. Raise your joys and triumphs high; Sing, ye heavens, and earth reply.

Hark the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born king." Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!

Faith, mighty faith, the promise sees, And looks to God alone; Laughs at impossibilities, And cries it shall be done.

God buries His workmen but carries on His work

God is gone up on high with a triumphant noise.

A charge to keep I have, A God to glorify: A never-dying soul to save, And fit it for the sky.

I shall be satisfied with Thy likeness-satisfied, satisfied.

See the Gospel Church secure, And founded on a Rock! All her promises are sure; Her bulwarks who can shock? Count her every precious shrine; Tell, to after-ages tell, Fortified by power divine, The Church can never fail.

Keep us little and unknown, prized and loved by God alone.

Catch on fire with enthusiasm and people will come for miles to watch you burn.

To God your every Want In instant Prayer display, Pray always; Pray, and never faint; Pray, without ceasing, Pray.

In Fellowship; alone To God, with Faith, draw near, Approach His Courts, besiege His Throne With all the power of Prayer.

Keep from me Thy loveliest creature, till I prove Jesus' love infinitely sweeter.

Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can.

The person who bears and suffers evils with meekness and silence, is the sum of a Christian man.
