Mark 11:22

by Chuck Smith

Faith is the substance of things hoped for, and we can obtain faith in God by reading His Word.

Scripture: Proverbs 3:5, Hebrews 11:1
Topics: "Trust in God", "Faith"

Description

Chuck Smith emphasizes the importance of having faith in God, explaining that faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. He points out that everyone has faith, whether in people or material things, but human faith can often lead to disappointment. In contrast, faith in God is steadfast and reliable, as God has never failed. Smith encourages believers to cultivate their faith through the study of God's Word, drawing parallels to how expertise in any field strengthens confidence. Ultimately, he calls for a deeper trust in God, especially during challenging times.
