

Proverbs 29:1

by Chuck Smith

The sermon emphasizes the urgent need for people to turn to Christ for salvation and redemption, warning of the consequences of hardening one's heart to Him.

Scripture: Exodus 10:1, Proverbs 29:1

Topics: "Urgency of Salvation", "Spiritual Reproof"

Description

Chuck Smith emphasizes the dire consequences of ignoring God's warnings, drawing parallels between physical ailments without remedies and spiritual neglect. He highlights the critical state of the world and the danger of hardening one's heart against the Holy Spirit's reproof, using examples like Pharaoh and Belshazzar to illustrate the suddenness of destruction that can follow. Smith urges listeners to heed the warnings they have received and to turn to Christ, as today is the day of salvation.
