

(Sermon Clip) If You Are Living in Sin You Cannot Go To Heaven

by Chuck Smith

This sermon emphasizes the danger of false assurance that can lead people to believe that all religions lead to heaven, contradicting Jesus' statement that He is the only way to the Father. It warns against false prophets who deceive by promoting a broad path to salvation, causing individuals to miss the narrow way to eternal life. The consequences of following false teachings are severe, potentially resulting in eternal separation from God despite expecting entry into heaven.

Scripture: John 14:6, Matthew 7:15, Matthew 7:13, 2 Peter 2:1

of giving you false information that could cost you your eternal destiny, whether you are with the Lord or apart from the Lord. What a terrible thing it is to give false assurance to people that cost them their lives. How much worse when it costs them their eternal destiny.

Jesus said, I am the way, the truth, and the life, and no man can come to the Father but by me. Thus if a person says, well all religions are good, all roads lead to heaven, it doesn't really matter what road you take. You can believe what you wish and all roads will ultimately lead to heaven.

They are false prophets. They are saying something that is totally contradicting what Jesus said when he said, no man can come to the Father but by me. Now there are those that say, well that's too narrow.

You can't believe that God is that narrow, can you? And they try to assure you that you can just get to heaven by any old kind of belief that you might have. I wonder how many people at death who are expecting to enter into heaven only to awake in hell. At that point they will realize I listened to a false prophet who comforted me and assured me in my sin and forever ruling the fact that you didn't listen to what God said but to what man said.
