

Eternity - the Hope of Heaven (Compilation)

by Compilations

The sermon emphasizes that our relationship with Jesus is the greatest thing, and that's enough to bring us devotion and blessings.

Duration: 8:13

Scripture: Psalm 23:1, Matthew 11:28, Romans 8:28

Topics: "Compilation"

Description

In this sermon, the preacher emphasizes the importance of being zealous in preaching and reading the Word of God. He encourages new Christians to be passionate about their faith and promises that God will bless and heal them if they are obedient. However, the preacher also reminds the audience that the ultimate focus should be on Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross. He emphasizes that Jesus is the Savior and His work is sufficient for salvation. The preacher concludes by stating that when Jesus returns, believers will have complete knowledge and understanding of Him.

Transcript

We are redeemed of the Lord, so enter into us and see. Death's not going to be for a long time, for there's a day when Rome will be a place of heaven. The grace of God.

Gracious heavenly Father. I want to tell you something. If you are a Christian, this is a splendid thing.

If you're a new Christian and you might be very zealous in preaching and reading the Word and all sorts of things, and that's wonderful. Until simply the heavenly vision of that exalted Savior will drive you on. Come to you and tell you, if you do this, He'll bless you.

If you do that, He'll heal you. If you do this, He'll prosper you. And you'll look at them and say, I need none of it.

It is enough that Jesus died. Just Him. Just the vision of Him will be enough to greater and greater devotion.

What you have not yet seen. As I said earlier today, like I said, the moment Jesus returns, you're going to know absolutely everything about the Book of Revelation. You're going to know absolutely everything about the Second Coming the moment He returns.

But you will spend an eternity wondering how glorious is this Savior and how glorious is this work that He's done for you. Do you belong to Him?
