Description

In this sermon, the preacher emphasizes the importance of total surrender and supreme loyalty to Christ in order to be a true disciple. He states that none of us can be in right relationship with God or be a disciple of Christ without giving up all our possessions and coming to the end of ourselves. The preacher highlights that salvation cannot be earned through material wealth, but rather through complete trust in Christ. He warns that if our faith becomes tasteless and lacks evidence of true discipleship, it is useless and of no value to God or His kingdom.

You need to weigh in on the cost factor and count the cost of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. It will cost you popularity. It will cost you promotion, perhaps at times.

It will cost you an easy life. You will have to discipline yourself. You will have to buffet your body.

You will have to say no to temptation. You will have to say no to this world. You will have to break with the crowd.

You will have to be willing to stand alone for Christ. You will have to be willing to walk to the beat of a different drummer and to step out of the crowd, even if no one follows after Jesus Christ. You'd be willing to stand if you're the only person in the world for Jesus Christ.

That's the cost factor. You would have to be willing to suffer persecution for Christ. And let me tell you, it will come.

It might even cost you your life. He is not coming to play games. He is not coming to be docile.

He is coming to dominate and He is coming to slaughter. He is the King of kings and He is the Lord of lords. And at the end of this age, He will bolt out of heaven on a white steed and His garments are dripped in blood, the blood of His own enemies.

And He is coming back to conquer and to damn. You need to make terms of peace with this coming King or you will be subjected in damnation forever. And Jesus Christ says, you need to settle out of court.

You do not want to go into that final day of conflict with Christ or He will be ruthless in the execution of His justice. He will agree to terms of surrender. He will agree and His terms of peace are very simply this.

You must hate your own father and mother and brother and sister and even your own life more than me or you cannot be my disciple. He is pressing you for a decision. He will not be put off.

You cannot hit the mute button any longer in your heart. You must answer to Him. In verse 33, so then.

Conclusion, none of you can be my disciple. He is saying none of you can be a true Christian. None of you can be in my kingdom.

None of you can be in right relationship with me or the Father. None of you can be my disciple who does not give up all his own possessions. What is our Lord saying? He is not backing off.

He is increasing the commitment that He is calling for with every line of this section. He is not saying that you have to buy your way into the kingdom of heaven for none of us have enough gold and none of us have enough silver to ever remove the stain of sin that has defiled our inner soul. What is He saying? Who does not give up all of his own possessions? Well, this must be taken in context with other texts of scripture.

And let me just cut to the bottom line of the bottom line. You must transfer the ownership of all that you are and all that you have to all that He is. Possessions are no longer your possessions.

They are now His possessions. Your future is no longer your future. It is now His future.

Your treasure is no longer your treasure. It is now His treasure. And you have transferred all that you are and all that you have.

That's what it is to meet His terms of peace. Yet the exchange is not bartered or bought with real money, but it is purchased with the total, complete surrender of your life. That's what saving faith is.

It is coming to the end of yourself and completely and entirely entrusting all that you are and all that you have. This is your eternal soul. This is the only life you will ever live.

This deals with the only eternity you will ever have. And so he says, salt is good, but if even salt has become tasteless, meaning it gives evidence that it was never true salt to begin with, with what will it be seasoned? And the answer is nothing. Verse 35, it is useless either for the soul or for... It's just no good to anyone.

His supreme legion, His supreme loyalty to Christ. You have not yet come under the Lordship of Christ and taken up a cross to follow after Him. And then he says, he who has ears to hear, let him hear.

You need to give strictest attention to what God has said. God has spoken in His Son to us in this conference. And God has brought every one of us to this place.

Not a one of us is here by accident or by happenstance. And it is the goodness of God and the mercy of God that has brought you to this place where you have heard of Isaiah 53. You have heard of the suffering Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who upon that cross became sin for us.

Upon that cross, He died to self that He might live for us and that He might bear our sins and iniquities upon that tree and purchase our salvation. And there is salvation in no other name. For there is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

Jesus said, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father but through Me. And He is calling out to you today.

Come unto Me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will take you in and receive you unto Myself. Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart. And you shall find rest for your souls, for My burden is easy and My yoke is light.

It is, it is. You will have the weight of sin lifted off of you. And you will have now the yoke of Christ upon you.

And He gets into that yoke with you. And He pulls with you. But it will require the total commitment of your life to Him.

Oh, how we ought to search our hearts here today. Have I come to this place of total commitment in my life? Have I yielded my life to the sovereign Lordship of Him who died upon the cross for me? I want you to know that the gates of paradise have been swung open to you. And the narrow gate is open.

And if you will take a step of faith and come through this narrow gate and commit your life to Him, despite the strength of His words, He also says, Him who comes unto Me I will in no wise. He is calling you today to come, to come to Him. To take a step of faith and to come to Him.

Don't play games.
