

More Worth Than Birds (Compilation)

by Compilations

God's care and attention are detailed and personal, and we are worth more than all the birds of the earth.

Duration: 2:35

Scripture: Psalm 55:22, Matthew 6:26, Matthew 10:30-31, Luke 12:7, Hebrews 4:15, 1 Peter 5:7

Topics: "Compilation"

Description

In this sermon, the preacher emphasizes the care and love that God has for His people. He highlights the fact that God knows every detail about us, even the number of hairs on our heads. The preacher emphasizes that if God cares for the birds and takes notice of every hair on our heads, He will not ignore our needs or turn His back on us. The sermon encourages believers to trust in God's care and to not fear, even in times of crisis, because God has a purpose in everything He allows.

Transcript

If I have taken the time to number every hair on your head, you think I'm going to ignore what's happening to you? You think I'm just going to be passive when you hurt? I'm going to turn my back on you when I don't turn my back on the birds? I need you more More than yesterday, I need you Lord You can throw scriptures at people, you can stand on the street corner, preach Christ, believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, but in your crisis time, in your times of being overwhelmed, you do not acknowledge that He cares for you, that He has a purpose in what happens, whatever He allows.

He has all the mercy and the grace and He cares and He sees and He feels and He's touched with the feelings of your infirmities and if you turn around as if God has turned His back on you, and you say, He doesn't see me, He doesn't care about me, and you go about with a long face and you go about complaining and murmuring, you have not confessed Christ before the world because confessing Christ is in light of what I've told you, in light of my care. I need you Lord What do you think? Do you understand how detailed my care is? Can I convey to you that I care about the birds? I care about every hair that falls from your head?

And He said, in light of that, I want to tell you that you have nothing to fear.

Why would you fear when I know that you're worth more than all the birds of the earth? If I have taken the time to number every hair on your head, you think I'm going to ignore what's happening to you? You think I'm just going to be passive when you hurt? I'm going to turn my back on you and I don't turn my back on the birds? I need you Lord More than yesterday I need you Lord More than words can say More than words can say I need you Lord More than ever before I need you Lord
