Description

In this sermon, the preacher emphasizes the urgency for believers to seek God wholeheartedly. He questions why people are distracted by worldly entertainment instead of focusing on the imminent return of Jesus. The preacher highlights the need for brokenness and a genuine desire to seek God's heart. He warns that a time will come when God will hide Himself, and people will struggle to find Him because they have not cultivated a habit of seeking Him. The preacher emphasizes the importance of seeking God now and allowing Him to shake and get the attention of His people.

Now we're starting with the Lord just perceiving his presence and saying, Lord, tell me what's on your heart. Oh, Jesus, share with me so I can get up Sunday night with the people and I can just let it flow and I'll know it's you, Jesus. What is it that's grieving you about your children? What is it about me? What is it about my family, our staff, their church? What is it that grieves your heart, Lord? And oh, it's so clear.

David, no one's really seeking me. You're not seeking me. You're not seeking me like you should.

With all your heart, he said, seek me while I'm near. Seek me while I be found. He's saying, come a time you can't find me.

I'm going to have to hide while these calamities are on the earth. You won't find me, not because he hides from those who seek him, but he said, you're going to be so wrapped up in your own things that you won't even see me if I were there. You won't find me.

You won't find me. God's going to get our attention. He's going to get the attention of his people.

He's going to shake you. He's going to shake me. He's going to shake our families.

He's going to shake everything that can be shaken. Oh, brother, sister, it's coming. We are on the verge.

Prophets have preached it. I've preached it for years, and now there's a sense that it's coming, and we're so close. Why aren't we on our face? Why aren't we? Why? Why are you parked in front of a television set laughing at Bill Cosby? Why are you sitting watching Dallas and Dynasty when Jesus is about to come? Why? Why? Why? I'm not against listening to music.

I'm not against reading books. I go out to eat with my wife and family, too. But the Lord's saying, is your heart broken enough? Are you going to start seeking? He said, in the day you seek me with all your heart and mind and soul and strength, you'll find me.

But I'll tell you something. God is saying something to the church right now. You'd better start seeking me, the Lord's saying.

While I can be found, you'd better do it now, because the time's going to come that you won't know where to go. You're not used to going to him. You're not used to seeking him.

So used to calling a friend. So used to just sitting there in your despair. God says, learn to come to me.

Seek me. And that's all I hear from God now. Seek me, David.

Seek me. Every spare hour. Seek me.

Let Him call you for that. Reach out through your heart to my heart.
