

Will The Church Speak The Truth

by Daniel Kenaston

This sermon emphasizes the importance of speaking the truth, drawing parallels to Micaiah's boldness in calling out prevalent lies of his time. It challenges the church in North America to consider whether they will remain silent or boldly proclaim the truth in the face of challenges. The message encourages believers to follow Micaiah's example of speaking up and communicating the truth, rather than hiding or compromising.

Scripture: Proverbs 12:22, Ephesians 4:25, John 8:32, 1 Peter 3:15

Topics: "Boldness in Truth", "Speaking Against Lies"

Transcript

Our next point is that Micaiah called out the lies which were prevalent in his day. Micaiah called out the lies which were prevalent in his day. The day is coming quickly in North America where the challenge will be, is the church going to be quiet or is the church going to speak the truth? Is the church going to just decide to kind of hide as much as possible or is the church going to be known for standing up and saying, this is the truth.

Micaiah spoke up and communicated the truth.
