

8. Rhetorical Style

by Daniel Steele

The sermon highlights the constant occurrence of moral and spiritual antitheses in the Bible, emphasizing the contrast between good and evil.

Scripture: John 8:44, John 11:25, 1 John 1:5, 1 John 3:10, 1 John 4:6, 1 John 4:8, 1 John 5:16

Topics: "Spiritual Contrasts", "Moral Dualism"

Description

Daniel Steele preaches about the constant occurrence of moral and spiritual antitheses in the Bible, where each thought has its opposite. He highlights the contrasts such as light and darkness, life and death, love and hate, truth and falsehood, children of God and children of the devil, sin unto death and sin not unto death, the spirit of truth and the spirit of error, and love of the Father versus love of the world.

Transcript

The most marked feature of the style is the constant occurrence of moral and spiritual antitheses, each thought has its opposite, each affirmative its negative; light and darkness, life and death, love and hate, truth and falsehood, children of God and children of the devil, sin unto death and sin not unto death, the spirit of truth and the spirit of error, love of the Father and love of the world.
