Transcript

With hopes that I harboured deep down in my heart. But my dreams turned to ashes, my castles all crumbled, my fortune turned to loss. So I wrapped it all in the rags of my life and I lay it at the cross.

Something good of that. Something good. All my confusions he understood.

All I had to offer him was rudeness and strife. But he made something beautiful of my life. Let's pray.

Amen. Oh Lord Jesus Christ. Lord of the Church.

Only Saviour of sinners. Only Redeemer of lives on this universe. Lord Jesus have mercy.

Forgive me for going to Moab for my satisfaction. Whether by thought or view, by word or deed. However, oh God forgive us for forsaking the house of bread, for imitations and idols.

And oh God we in your mercy have been brought to an end of ourselves because it doesn't work. It doesn't satisfy us. It doesn't make any difference anymore.

You stripped us bare. Bring us back to Bethlehem. Oh God let us plead like women.

Let us follow the feet of the Lord Jesus. And stay there till the day we die. And look up into his face and we be like him.

For we shall see him as he is. Oh God hear our prayer. And may it make a difference today for one.
Even one. That will make a difference for all. Amen.
