

Are You Facing a Giant?

by David Wilkerson

---

David Wilkerson's sermon encourages believers to remember God's past deliverances as they face their own giants in life.

Scripture: Exodus 13:3, Deuteronomy 6:7, 1 Samuel 17:33, 1 Samuel 17:36-37, Psalm 77:11-12, Psalm 105:5, Isaiah 46:9, 2 Timothy 1:5, Hebrews 11:1

Topics: "Remembering God's Faithfulness", "Faith"

---

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes the importance of remembering God's past miracles as a source of strength when facing life's giants. He draws on the example of Moses reminding Israel to recall their deliverance from Egypt and David's confidence in confronting Goliath, rooted in his memories of defeating a lion and a bear. Wilkerson encourages believers to guard these memories and share them with future generations to build faith. He reminds us that recalling God's faithfulness can empower us to face our current challenges without fear. Ultimately, he calls us to trust in God's ability to deliver us once again.

---

Transcript

It is easy to take for granted the miracles God has performed in our past. Yet the Bible tells us to remember our deliverances. Moses' exhortation to Israel after the miracle of the Red Sea was, "Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage" (Exodus 13:3).

The Lord was telling them, in essence, "Guard these memories and every time you face a crisis, remember all the miracles I have provided for you. And be sure to tell your children so it will build your faith and the faith of generations to follow."

The memory of our past deliverances helps increase our faith for what we are going through right now. When David volunteered to fight the giant Goliath, King Saul said to him, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are a youth, and he a man of war from his youth" (1 Samuel 17:33). But David had the memory of killing a lion and a bear with his bare hands when he was protecting his sheep. He told Saul about this and assured him, "Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God" (17:36).

David knew the danger of facing Goliath but he was not a novice, a naive kid full of bravado and looking for a fight. No, he was simply remembering his past deliverances and he was assured of victory. He looked his enemy squarely in the eye and stated, "The Lord, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine" (17:37).

Are you facing a giant in your life? Remember that time when God healed your body and raised you up? Remember the time he provided the finances you needed to get your through? Do not cower in fear, but think on his faithfulness and trust him to deliver you once again.

---

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/david-wilkerson/are-you-facing-a-giant/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

---

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net