

David Wilkerson Quotes

by David Wilkerson

David Wilkerson warns of the impending judgment of God on America and calls for true faith and repentance.

Scripture: 2 Chronicles 7:14, Psalm 77:11-12, Matthew 7:13-14, John 3:17, Acts 1:8, Romans 12:2, 2 Timothy 4:3-4, Hebrews 10:24-25, 1 John 3:18, Revelation 3:16

Topics: "Faith in Action", "Spiritual Awakening"

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes that Christ's mission was to save rather than to condemn, urging believers to remember God's past deliverances and to act on their love for Him. He warns against complacency in faith, highlighting the dangers of a lukewarm gospel that neglects the full counsel of God, including repentance and the reality of judgment. Wilkerson reflects on his ministry, acknowledging trials but affirming God's faithfulness, and calls for a revival that may come through calamity. He critiques the current state of leadership in America and the spiritual apathy among Christians, urging a return to genuine faith and action.

Transcript

Christ died to save this lost world; he did not come to destroy, maim or pour out wrath.

Love is not only something you feel, it is something you do.

How quickly we forget God's great deliverances in our lives. How easily we take for granted the miracles he performed in our past.

When you strip it of everything else, Pentecost stands for power and life. That's what came into the church when the Holy Spirit came down on the day of Pentecost.

Today, some Christians are content to merely exist until they die. They don't want to risk anything, to believe God, to grow or mature. They refuse to believe his Word, and have become hardened in their unbelief. Now they're living just to die.

What is it about tears that should be so terrifying? the touch of God is marked by tears...deep, soul-shaking tears, weeping...it comes when that last barrier is down and you surrender yourself to health and wholeness.

As I look back over fifty years of ministry, I recall innumerable tests, trials and times of crushing pain. But through it all, the Lord has proven faithful, loving, and totally true to all his promises.

Many of those who once were so passionately in love with Christ now run about pursuing their own interests. They're burdened down with stress and problems, chasing after riches and the things of this world.

Our nation is being led astray by ungodly judges, mayors and governors, who are given to change, defying the Constitution and substituting their own wicked agendas.

Before His final judgements fall, God wants to bathe you in His precious blood and His Word.

What makes us think God would judge every past society when they reached this stage-and yet somehow we, who are more wicked than all of them, will escape?

God has never, in the history of mankind, allowed his name to go long offended.

The judgments of God will fall on America so swiftly and mightily that there will be no mistaking they are from God. Every prophet who's been preaching peace and prosperity and lulling a sinful nation to sleep will soon be exposed. This nation will know that the time has come to pay up!

In the early years I was negative [prophetic books] and there are a lot of things I would like to take back. I'm not a prophet, just a watchman. I tried to build on the word of prophets.

I carried with me all this time over the years a bit of self-condemnation if I only had more education. I only had one year of Bible school. My parents were poor and could not afford college. I had an inner nagging if only I had been more educated I would be much better in my exegesis of scripture. But my father taught me to pray. He said 'God will always make a way for a praying man.

Our nation is being led astray by ungodly judges, mayors and governors, who are given to change, defying the Constitution and substituting their own wicked agendas.

The greatest fear that haunts this city is a suitcase bomb, nuclear or germ. Many people carry small gas masks. The masses here seem to be resigned to the inevitable, believing an attack of major proportions will happen.

Today, some Christians are content to merely exist until they die. They don't want to risk anything, to believe God, to grow or mature. They refuse to believe his Word, and have become hardened in their unbelief. Now they're living just to die.

God has never, in the history of mankind, allowed his name to go long offended.

Love is not only something you feel, it is something you do.

Many of those who once were so passionately in love with Christ now run about pursuing their own interests. They're burdened down with stress and problems, chasing after riches and the things of this world.

How quickly we forget God's great deliverances in our lives. How easily we take for granted the miracles he performed in our past.

As I look back over fifty years of ministry, I recall innumerable tests, trials and times of crushing pain. But through it all, the Lord has proven faithful, loving, and totally true to all his promises.

"God hates the LUKEWARM GOSPEL OF HALF-TRUTHS that is now spreading over the Globe. This gospel says, 'Just believe in Jesus and you'll be Saved. There's nothing more to it.' It ignores the Whole Counsel of God, which speaks of Repenting from former Sins, of Taking up your Cross, of being conformed to the Image of Christ by the refining work of the Holy Spirit. It is totally silent about the Reality of Hell and an After-Death Judgment."

"Faith Comes by Hearing ALL the Word, NOT just preferred sections."

"I never considered myself a great preacher but I saw God move on people."

"I was never afraid to take a risk. I moved 28 times and consider myself a pioneer. I was called by God to initiate ministries and bring more able bodies to run them."

In the early years I was negative [prophetic books] and there are a lot of things I would like to take back. I'm not a prophet, just a watchman. I tried to build on the word of prophets."

"The church in America will see a final awakening from a major calamity. There will be one last revival following a great calamity. It will shake the world. Everything will change in one hour or one day to bring down the Babylonian system of greed."

Many of those who once were so passionately in love with Christ now run about pursuing their own interests. They're burdened down with stress and problems, chasing after riches and the things of this world.

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/david-wilkerson/david-wilkerson-quotes/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net