

He Calls Us to Fight

by David Wilkerson

David Wilkerson emphasizes the necessity of engaging in spiritual warfare and the assurance of victory through faith in Christ.

Scripture: Luke 14:31

Topics: "Commitment to Christ", "Spiritual Warfare"

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes the call to spiritual warfare, urging believers to prepare for the battle against Satan's forces. He highlights the necessity of total commitment to Christ, as true disciples must forsake all to follow Him. With the assurance of victory through Christ, Wilkerson encourages the faithful to stand firm against the enemy's attacks, reminding them that they are invincible with the Holy Spirit's power. He passionately declares that nothing can separate us from the love of God, and urges believers to resist the devil and remain steadfast in their faith. The sermon serves as a rallying cry for those who desire to live sacrificially for Christ amidst spiritual challenges.

Transcript

"What king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage [delegation], and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple" (Luke 14:31-33).

Enoch once prophesied, "Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints" (Jude 14). Scripture says we are kings and priests unto the Lord, and we represent these tens of thousands going out to battle Satan's army. Satan wars against us because he hates us greatly (see Revelation 12:17).

We must be prepared for what is coming. We must be ready to spend our days in spiritual warfare, knowing that a flood of iniquity is aimed against the people of God. If we are determined to lay hold of Christ, then we need to realize that we are invincible in Christ. It is written, "Greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4). God says we are guaranteed victory over all the power of the enemy; we have all the host of heaven fighting for us!

May God give us more Holy Ghost fight so that each of us can shout to the world and all the hordes of hell, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?... Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:35, 37-39).

This is the battle cry of those who hunger for Jesus.

Every man or woman of God is going to become the target of hell's evil devices once a commitment is made to become a living sacrifice for Christ. The hordes of hell will be unleashed against the one who sets his heart to walk in holiness of faith.

Satan will afflict and set up roadblocks because you have become a real threat to his program of deception. You can resign the warfare, give up, quit, and become a dull, fruitless wanderer.

For me, I choose to resist the devil's plot, rise up in faith, and resume the fight. Satan cannot keep down one who truly trusts in the Lord.
