Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes that when God calls us to a specific task, He has already provided everything we need to fulfill it. He highlights the promise in 2 Corinthians 9:8, which assures us that God is able to provide an abundance of grace for every good work. Wilkerson encourages believers to seek a deeper revelation of God's provisions, reminding us that we are not meant to live in spiritual poverty but to experience the overflowing blessings God has prepared for us. He urges Christians to claim these promises by faith and to open their hearts to the abundant resources available through the Holy Spirit.

Transcript

When God calls us to any specific work, he has already made provision for everything we need to accomplish it.

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work" (2 Corinthians 9:8).

This verse is not just a hope--it is a promise! It begins with the words, "God is able!"

God is not interested in just meeting your need. He wants always to give you more than you need. That is what abound means--an ever-increasing, super-abundant supply!

"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us" (Ephesians 3:20).

Think of what is being promised here: When you are down and tired and don't think you can go any farther, God is able to so invigorate you that you will have all you need--at all times, in every possible situation.

It is as if the Lord is saying, "Listen, all you shepherds! Listen, all you who faithfully attend my house and labor in prayer, praise and intercession! I want to give you an abundance of strength, hope, joy, peace, rest, finances, encouragement, wisdom. In fact, I want you to have an overabundance of all you need--at all times!"

God never intended for us to be spiritual paupers, poor in the things of the Lord. On the contrary, the bountiful servant is the one who enjoys a revelation of all the great provisions God has prepared for him! And he goes after this revelation by faith!

"But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God" (1 Corinthians 2:9-10).

Paraphrased, "Our forefathers could not begin to comprehend all the great provisions God had prepared! It never entered into their vision, hearing or imagination. But there is no reason for us to be blind about these things, to go about not knowing what is ours. Our eyes must see, our ears must hear, it must enter into our hearts and minds--because we're the people for whom God has prepared it all! The Holy Spirit has revealed it to us!"

Indeed, the Bible says we are to seek him for this revelation. Paul wrote, "Now we have received...the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God...which things...the Holy Ghost teacheth...[and] are spiritually discerned" (vv. 12-14).

I believe most Christians have not honestly faced the power of these promises of God! We've read them many times, but they remain as dead letters to us. We haven't laid hold of them and said, "Lord, reveal to me what you have prepared! Open my mind and my spirit to your resources. Your Word says I must know all these things that are freely given to me so that I can claim them for your glory!"
