

Ready for Revival

by David Wilkerson

God is still at work in America, calling and wooing people to Himself, and there is still a great harvest ahead for revival.

Scripture: Isaiah 50:1, 2 Peter 3:9

Topics: "Revival", "Hope and Repentance"

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes that revival is possible if we believe in God's desire to pour out His Spirit, despite feelings of hopelessness and judgment. He reflects on God's mercy, highlighting that America has not been judged because there is still a great harvest and God desires all to come to repentance. Wilkerson draws parallels between God's plea to Judah in Isaiah and His current call to America, urging the nation to recognize that God has not abandoned them but is actively seeking their return. He encourages believers to remain hopeful and assured that the Spirit is working to draw people back to God. The message is a call to repentance and a reminder of God's enduring love and grace.

Transcript

Can we be ready for revival if we believe that all hope is gone--that we have sinned away our day of grace and there is nothing left but judgment? Beloved, we cannot have faith for a revival until we are convinced that God still wants to pour out His Spirit upon us!

Why hasn't America been judged? Why hasn't Jesus come yet? It is because there is still a great harvest ahead and God is ". . . not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9).

We see this great mercy of the Lord in a passage in Isaiah where God instructed the prophet to tell Judah: "Where is the certificate of your mother's divorce, whom I have put away? Or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you? For your iniquities you have sold yourselves, and for your transgressions your mother has been put away. Why, when I came, was there no man? Why, when I called, was there none to answer? Is My hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver?" (Isaiah 50:1-2).

God had already divorced Israel, giving them ". . . a certificate of divorce" (Jeremiah 3:8). But now His attention was on Judah, a people who had cheated on Him and walked away from Him. God still had a heart for Judah, and He came to them crying to see the certificate of divorce (see Isaiah 50:1). He was saying, "Show Me your divorce papers! Prove to Me I ever put you away. It was you who walked away from Me! I did nothing to grieve or hurt you. I loved you the whole time. I came to you and I called you!"

Beloved, that is exactly what I see God doing with America right now. He is saying to us, "Show Me your divorce papers! Show Me I walked away from you! I have not yet removed my Holy Spirit. Rather, I am still at work all over this nation--still wooing, calling, coming to you!"

The Lord is speaking this through many pulpits across this nation. He is speaking it through godly men and women who spend precious time seeking Him. He is calling America back to repentance--back to His own heart!

We have to be fully persuaded that there is still time, still hope, and that while we are praying, the Spirit is at work in all levels of society, calling and wooing people to Himself!

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/david-wilkerson/ready-for-revival/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net