

Redemption Through His Blood

by David Wilkerson

---

David Wilkerson emphasizes the power of Jesus' blood for redemption, freedom from condemnation, and living in victory as believers.

Scripture: Isaiah 61:10, Romans 8:37, Ephesians 1:7, 1 John 1:7, 1 John 3:21

Topics: "Redemption", "Overcoming Fear"

---

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes the power of redemption through the blood of Jesus, which not only forgives sins but also liberates believers from fear and condemnation. He highlights that many who are redeemed still struggle with guilt and anxiety, which can hinder their relationship with God. Wilkerson encourages believers to stand firm in their faith, using the authority of Christ's blood to combat spiritual attacks and to walk in the light of the Holy Spirit. He calls for a proactive approach to faith, urging believers to invite God's light into their hearts and to rejoice in the victory that comes from Jesus' sacrifice. Ultimately, he reassures that through Christ, we are more than conquerors and should celebrate the promise of redemption.

---

Transcript

"In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Ephesians 1:7). Jesus' blood redeems us from sin and the power of darkness. A lot of people have been redeemed and justified by the blood of Jesus, but they still needlessly live in fear and condemnation.

"Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God" (1 John 3:21). The shed blood of Jesus cleanses us from evil so that our conscience no longer condemns us. Your conscience does an evil work when it does not wake you or stir you to obedience to the gospel. It also does evil when it unnecessarily condemns you, accuses you, constantly reminds you of how you failed God, causing depression and fear.

"Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us" (Romans 8:37). Believers in Christ are to be warriors who call on the power and authority of Christ's blood when they are under enemy attack. Some may call their best friend or a counselor, or wallow in fear and condemnation, but the Lord wants us to immediately stand on the Word of God and plead the blood of Jesus. Truly, we can be more than conquerors through Him.

Believers in Christ are willing to walk in the light and allow the Holy Spirit to expose all darkness in them (see 1 John 1:7). John is clearly talking about someone who is in love with the Word of God and unafraid of reproof. Someone who says, "Lord, shine Your Holy Ghost light into every crevice of my heart. I want to walk in the light."

Your heavenly Father wants you to proclaim the victory of Jesus' blood in your life and begin praising him now for the promise of that great day of redemption ahead. "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation, He has covered me with the robe of righteousness" (Isaiah 61:10).

---

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/david-wilkerson/redemption-through-his-blood/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

---

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net