

To Know His Voice

by David Wilkerson

To truly know God, one must learn to recognize His voice above all others, requiring unshakeable confidence, quality time and quietness, and asking in faith.

Scripture: John 10:2

Topics: "Hearing God's Voice", "Faith and Assurance"

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes the importance of recognizing God's voice amidst the noise of the world. He outlines three key requirements for hearing God's voice: having unwavering confidence that God desires to speak to us, dedicating quality time in quietness to listen, and asking in faith for understanding. Wilkerson reassures that God's communication brings peace, which is a clear indicator of His presence, contrasting it with the confusion that comes from the enemy. Ultimately, knowing God's voice is essential for following His will and living a life aligned with His purpose.

Transcript

Those who truly know God have learned how to recognize his voice above all others. He wants you to be absolutely convinced that he desires to talk to you--to tell you things you've never seen or heard before.

I believe that three things are required of those who would hear God's voice:

1. An unshakeable confidence that God is wanting to speak to you. You have to be fully persuaded and convinced of this. Indeed, he is a speaking God--and he wants you to know his voice so you can do his will. What God tells you will never go beyond the boundaries of Scripture.
2. Quality time and quietness. You need to be willing to shut yourself in with God and let all other voices hush away. True, God speaks to us all day long. But whenever he has wanted to build something into my life, his voice has come only after I had shut out every other voice but his.
3. Asking in faith. We do not obtain anything from God (including hearing his voice) unless we truly believe that he is able to convey his mind to us--to enable us to understand his perfect will!

God is not a tease! He will not allow the enemy to deceive you. When God speaks, peace follows--and Satan cannot counterfeit that peace!

"But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers" (John 10:2-5).
